

The kids from Jasper Elementary school like to play jokes on the janitor.

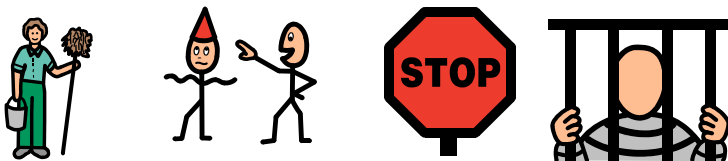

They put jello on his jeans, and jellybeans in his hat.

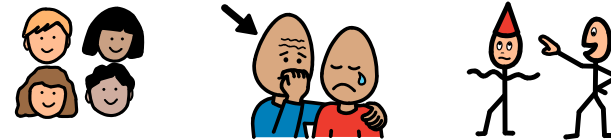

They put jingle bells in his jacket and jacks in the jacuzzi.

The janitor said, "These jokes have to stop or someone's going to jail."

The kids felt very sorry for all their mean jokes.

They brought the janitor some jam, juice and a new jumprope.

Now the janitor jumps rope with the kids.
